

ANNUAL BUDGET FOR YOUR CAT

How will owning a cat affect your yearly budget? This reference guide will give you a better understanding of how much to budget per year for your cat. The prices below are based on the 2013 Canadian Veterinary Medical Association Cost of Care survey and represent the national average.

CHOW TIME
$288

$20 Toys

$101

Litter

BE COVERED

Be financially prepared for future medical needs by purchasing accident and illness insurance coverage.

$360* Pet Health Insurance

DON'T FORGET!

Don't take the chance of being fined by your local municipality.

$20
Annual License

VETERINARY CARE

$82
Flea prevention

$29
Annual fecal exam

$141
Annual wellness profile

$492
Professional dental care

$122
Annual vaccines

TOTAL ANNUAL COST

$1,655

Visit us at www.petsplusus.com for more information on raising a happy, healthy pet.

All figures calculate as a national average from the CVMA 2013 Cost of Care research, conducted by province. *National average for Pet Plus Us accident and illness coverage. 21529 CCCAT 04/14

